

Project Flow:

A web application is built where

1. Farmers can interact with the portal build
2. Farmers interact with the user interface to upload images of diseased leaf
3. Our model built analyses the Disease and suggests the farmer with fertilizers are to be used